INSTRUCTIONS

A. Each interrogatory and every subpart thereof shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to only part of an interrogatory, that part shall be specified. An answer should not be supplied solely by reference to the answer to another interrogatory or subpart unless the answer is completely identical to the answer to which reference is made.

B. The answers shall be signed by the Person giving them, and the objections, if any, shall be signed by the Person or attorney making them. When a complete answer to a particular interrogatory is not possible after exercising the required diligence, the interrogatory shall be answered to the extent possible and a statement shall be made indicating the reasons only a partial answer is given, stating the information or knowledge you have concerning the unanswered portion or unproduced Documents, and describing your efforts to secure the unknown information or unproduced Documents.

C. Identify each Person who assisted or participated in preparing and/or supplying any of the information given in a response to or relied upon in preparing the answers to these interrogatories.

D. If precise information cannot be supplied in response to any interrogatory, an estimate (identified as such) and an explanation of the basis for the estimate shall be supplied.

E. The words “and” and “or” shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively as necessary to make the request inclusive rather than exclusive. The word “including” shall be construed to mean without limitation. The words “any” and “all” shall be construed so as to make the request inclusive rather than exclusive.

F. The use of the past tense shall include the present tense, and the use of the present tense shall include the past tense, so as to make all definitions and discovery requests inclusive rather than exclusive.

G. The singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

H. These interrogatories shall be read, interpreted, and answered in accordance with these instructions and the definitions set forth herein. If the meaning of any word or phrase used herein is unclear, the Respondents’ attorneys are requested to contact Complaint Counsel for the purpose of resolving any ambiguity. If any interrogatory cannot be answered in full after exercising the required diligence, it shall be answered to the extent possible with a full statement of all efforts to fully answer and of all reasons a full answer cannot be made.

I. If it is claimed that the attorney-client privilege or any other privilege is applicable to any Document sought by these discovery requests, specify the privilege claimed and the factual basis you contend supports the assertion of the privilege, and identify the Document as follows:

- i) State the date, nature, and subject matter of the Document;
- ii) Identify each author of the Document;
- iii) Identify each preparer of the Document;
- iv) Identify each Person who is an addressee or an intended recipient of the Document;
- v) Identify each Person from whom the Document was received;

- vi) State the present location of the Document and all copies thereof;
- vii) Identify each Person who has or ever had possession, custody, or control of the Document or any copy thereof;
- viii) State the number of pages, attachments, appendices, and exhibits; and
- ix) Provide all further information concerning the Document and the circumstances upon which the claim of privilege is asserted.

J. For any Communication with respect to which a privilege is asserted, identify the Persons or entities among whom the Communication took place, the date of the Communication, and the subject.

K. In the event that any Document sought by these discovery requests has been destroyed, discarded, or otherwise disposed of, that Document is to be identified as completely as possible, by including, without limitation, the following information:

- i) Each author of the Document;
- ii) Each preparer of the Document;
- iii) Each addressee or intended recipient of the Document;
- iv) Each Person who received the Document;
- v) The date of the Document;
- vi) The subject matter of the Document;
- vii) The reason for disposal of the Document;
- viii) Each Person who authorized disposal of the Document;
- ix) Each Person who disposed of the Document.

L. If any Document was, but is no longer, in your possession, custody, or control, provide the following information:

- i) State the disposition of the Document;
- ii) State the date such disposition was made;
- iii) Identify the present custodian of the Document, or, if the Document no longer exists, so state;
- iv) Identify the Person(s) who made the decision regarding the disposition of the Document; and
- v) State the reasons for the disposition and describe the Document and the contents of the Document, including the title, author, position or title of the author, addressee, position or title of the addressee, whether indicated or blind copies were made, date, subject matter, number of pages, attachments or appendices, and all Persons to whom the Document was distributed, shown, or explained.

M. Pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 1025.31, the Respondents are under a continuing duty to supplement its responses to these discovery requests without further request from Complaint Counsel. Where the Respondents have responded to a discovery request with a response that was complete when made, Respondents are under a duty to supplement that response to include information later obtained.

N. Unless otherwise specified, the time period encompassed by these interrogatories is January 1, 2009 to the Present.
