Agenda

- Discussion of Standards
- Overview of the Open-Flame Standard
- Understanding Prototyping
- Retailer Responsibility
- Retail Surveillance

~

- Question & Answer Session

The Standards

- Part 1632 addresses cigarette ignition risk
- Part 1633 addresses open flame ignition
 - Provides occupants additional time to discover & escape a fire

Compliance with the Standards

- All Mattresses and Mattress Sets manufactured, imported or renovated on or after July 1, 2007 must comply with 16 CFR § 1633, Standard for the Flammability (Open- Flame) of Mattress Sets.
- A mattress set is defined as:
 - Mattresses and foundations labeled for sale as a set
 - Mattresses labeled for sale without a foundation

- All mattresses and mattress sets will bear a label indicating that they meet the standard and whether they are intended for sale alone or with an intended foundation (the mattress label must indicate the appropriate foundation ID).
- Mattresses must continue to comply with 16 CFR § 1632, Standard for the Flammability of Mattresses and Mattress Pads.

Retailers:

- Responsible for selling compliant sets.
- May choose
 - to conduct testing of sets that they put together , or
 - obtain objectively reasonable criteria to pair mattresses and foundations that may not have been previously qualified.

Guaranty

- Guaranty issued under the FFA
 - From manufacturer to retailer – guarantees that reasonable and representative tests, made in accordance with the Standard, show the product covered by the guaranty conforms to the Standard.
 - Forms available under 16 CFR § 1608.2 and 1608.3

Consumer Safety Pamphlet

- Sleep Safer Pamphlet for retailers

Retail Surveillance

- How?
- When?
- Why?

Scope

- All mattress sets manufactured, imported or renovated on or after July 1, 2007
- Mattress set
 - Mattress and foundation labeled for sale as a set
 - Mattress labeled for sale without foundation

The Standard's Performance Requirements

- Objectives:

- Limit fire intensity
- Provide time for discovery and escape by preventing or delaying flashover

- Performance criteria:

- Max. 15 MJ total heat release in 1st 10 min.
- Max. 200 kW peak rate of heat release at anytime during 30 min. test

What Is a Prototype?

- “Prototype” means a specific design of mattress set that serves as a model for production units intended to be introduced into commerce and is the same as the production units with respect to materials, components, design and methods of assembly.
- Mattresses intended for sale with one or more foundations constitute separate prototypes from those intended for sale without a foundation.

Three Kinds of Prototypes

- Qualified Prototype
- Confirmed Prototype
- Subordinate Prototype

Mfrs/Importer Recordkeeping

- Test Records
- Prototype Records
- Pooling Records
- Quality Assurance Records

Labeling Requirements

- Each mattress set must bear permanent, conspicuous, and legible label, to include the following in English
 - Manufacturer name
 - For imported mattress sets, importer and foreign manufacturer name
 - Manufacturer's complete physical address
 - For imported mattress sets, complete physical address of foreign manufacturer and U.S. importer (or location of records in U.S.)
 - Month and year of manufacture
 - Model identification
 - Prototype identification number

- Certification that mattress complies with the Standard either with or without a designated foundation, or both
- Statement identifying whether the manufacturer intends the mattress set to be sold alone, with a foundation, or both
- The reverse side of the label may show same information in any other language

- Label content must meet specified wording, type size, font and dimensional requirements
- The Standard limits the information allowed on the label
- Purpose of the Label
 - Enable consumers to choose correct foundation, if any
 - Ensure that information is not detracted from or minimized
 - Prevent potential confusion between State and Federal labeling
 - Facilitate compliance activities
